Planning Group Calls a Public Meet Tonight

Hope Planning Commission is holding a public hearing on a proposed zoning ordinance and a proposed ordinance regulating subdivision of property. A public hearing is required by law and must be held before the proposal can be submitted to the Board of City Directors for final adoption.

The proposed zoning ordinance designates three different types of residential areas, three types of business areas, and sets out certain areas that are zoned for industrial use.

The comprehensive zoning plan is the result of over two years' work by the 9-member City Planning Commission and upon adoption by the Board of City Directors will become a development plan for the future growth of the city.

Atch Wylie, Chairman of the Commission, urged all interested citizens to be present at the meeting which will be held at the City Hall tonight at 7:30 p.m.

Discussion at the public hearing might bring about some changes in the proposed plan, but the plan will be completed following this public hearing and submitted to the Board of Directors for adoption at their next regular meeting.

The Planning Commission is anticipating a large turnout of citizens and hopes as many views as possible can be expressed in order that the plan when presented to the city officials for adoption can, as nearly as possible, fit into a sound plan of community growth.

Non-Agri Jobs Set a Record

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Non-agricultural job placements during April set an 11-year record in Arkansas, the Employment Security Division said Tuesday.

J. L. Bland, administrator, said the 31 offices of the ESD placed 11,221 persons last month on non-farm jobs. He said the ESD has not placed this many persons since April, 1951.

The increase was attributed to seasonal activities.

West Germany, U. S. Split Dims Berlin Outlook

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON (AP)—A potentially dangerous open split between the United States and West Germany clouded the outlook today for future U.S. talks with the Soviet Union on terms of a possible Berlin settlement.

U.S. officials said the Kennedy administration is fully determined to go ahead with the probing conversations. But there was some uncertainty as to just how fast Secretary of State Dean Rusk would be able to move. He is due to have another meeting with Soviet Ambassador Anatoly F. Dobrynin in the next week or so.

President Kennedy was expected to discuss the situation at a mid-afternoon news conference, probably emphasizing his intention that the conversations be carried on in full consultation with West Germany and other directly interested countries.

Officials here said it was not possible to assess immediately the full impact of the open breach between Adenauer and the Kennedy administration over the conduct of the U.S.-Soviet talks.

But any such rift in Allied ranks is always worrisome and potentially hazardous because if the possible impact on other Allied positions.

The line which Adenauer has taken in public discussion at Berlin this week was described by these officials as differing sharply from the line which Foreign Minister Gerhardt Schroeder took in talks with Rusk at Athens as recently as last weekend.

Adenauer told a news conference Tuesday that "I see no ground for continuing the talks between American and Soviet officials. He also asked at one point in the news conference: "Do you think there is no danger in continuing talks indefinitely without result? The effect of his question was to suggest that he thinks it might prove dangerous to carry on the exploratory discussion indefinitely.

No. 50, Has Faubus' Aid, Cities Say

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Arkansas Municipal League said today Gov. Orval E. Faubus has agreed to support proposed Amendment 50 in the November general election.

The amendment would give cities additional taxing power. Faubus supported a similar amendment which was defeated in 1960.

Glenn Zimmerman, executive secretary of the league, said Faubus agreed to support an amendment during a conference this morning at which league representatives discussed financing problems of cities with the governor.

"He (Faubus) was very sympathetic," Zimmerman said. "He has a good grasp of municipal problems." Zimmerman said the league notified the governor that it would continue to work for allocation of highway revenues under a road use percentage formula. The latest road use study shows the cities should have 13.8 per cent of highway money. Zimmerman said, but the 1961 legislature allocated only about 10 per cent. The 13.8 per cent formula would have given cities about $500,000 more in street funds, Zimmerman said.

State Must Fire Workers or Lose Cash

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Civil Service Commission has told the Labor Department that if Arkansas doesn't fire two state employees it will lose $30,000 in federal aid.

The Civil Service Commission said Luke Arnett, ESD attorney, and Charles Wood, assistant manager of the Little Rock ESD of Loe, violated the federal Hatch Act by soliciting campaign funds for Gov. Orval E. Faubus in 1960.

The Hatch Act prohibits government employees from participating in political activities. The ESD is a state agency, but it gets federal funds.

The funds to be withheld represent twice their annual salaries. William Watkins, a third ESD employee charged with violating the Hatch Act resigned to go into private business.

Gov. Orval E. Faubus has indicated that he will not fire Arnett or Wood.

Plane Service to 2 Cities Suspended

WASHINGTON (AP)—Trans-Texas Airways was authorized Tuesday to temporarily suspend service at Magnolia and Camden, Ark.

The Civil Aeronautic Board, which granted the suspension, said it will continue 60 days after a final decision is made in proceedings regarding service to the two points.

Trans-Texas was also granted temporary authority to redesignate El Dorado and Camden on its certificate as El Dorado-Camden, permitting it to serve both from one airport.

Magnolia and Camden have been served by Trans-Texas since 1953 and until the suspension received one DC-3 round trip a day between Memphis, Tenn., and Shreveport, La.

Trans-Texas said neither city has ever met the CAB's minimum use-it-or-lose-it traffic standard. The CAB estimated the airline could save $44,000 annually by reducing the number of stops on the route, eliminating the two stations and increasing passenger loads between Shreveport, Little Rock and Memphis.

Senate Vote Fails to End Literacy Debate, Fails to Kill the Bill

JFK Says All Patients Will Get Treatment

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy says his medical care for the aged plan will be approved by Congress and that all doctors will treat patients under it—an indirect reference to some 200 New Jersey physicians who say they won't.

Thus Kennedy obliquely joined a more direct assault on the physicians' stand launched by other administration officials.

The New Jersey physicians, from Point Pleasant Hospital and Pitkin Memorial Hospital at Neptune, signed a resolution last week saying they would refuse to treat patients under Kennedy's Social Security-financed medical plan if it passed Congress.

Kennedy, speaking Tuesday at the United Auto Workers' convention in Atlantic City, said "I am confident that the great majority, in fact all doctors, will treat those who may be covered by this national program."

Also speaking before the auto workers, Secretary of Labor Arthur J. Goldberg called the resolution "a disgrace, a disgrace to the country."

Secretary of Welfare Abraham Ribicoff said the doctors were violating their professional oath and that the resolution was an attempt to blackmail Congress and the American people.

Ribicoff said "these doctors apparently believe it is all right for the federal government to help build the hospitals in which they practice, but that an insurance plan that would help their patients pay their hospital bills would not be good."

Dr. J. Bruce Henriksen, who initiated the New Jersey resolution, denounced Ribicoff's statement as a threat to withhold federal aid from hospitals whose doctors oppose the medical care plan.

New Jersey's six Democratic congressmen appealed to the New Jersey Medical Society to repudiate "this attempt by a small group of men to impose their will upon the elected representatives of the people."

At Point Pleasant, Henriksen said: "This thing has been twisted to make us look like a bunch of stinkers, as if we were not going to take care of old people, but that isn't true. Our fight is against the King-Anderson bill (the medical care bill) and the socialization of medicine."

WASHINGTON (AP)—The seventh shot of the U.S. nuclear test series in the atmosphere was set off today in the Pacific. It followed the sixth shot by only one day.

Like the shot set off Tuesday it was described by the Defense Department and the Atomic Energy Commission as being in the intermediate range.

That covers a blast with the explosive force of between 20,000 and 1 million tons of TNT.

Also like Tuesday's shot, the device was dropped from an airplane near Christmas Island.

U. S. Trying to Integrate Hospitals

GREENSBORO, N.C. (AP)—The Department of Justice, seeking a federal court order outlawing racial segregation in hospitals built with federal aid, has intervened in a suit filed here by 11 Negro physicians, dentists and patients.

The suit, filed Feb. 12, was among the first steps by the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People to end hospital segregation in the South.

The Department of Justice asked court permission Tuesday to join in the suit against two hospitals that have received $2.8 million in federal aid for construction.

The department contended that a provision in the Hill-Burton Act of 1946—which permits grants for hospital construction—was unconstitutional.

The challenged provision allows grants "where separate hospital facilities are provided for separate population groups."

A Justice Department attorney filed a motion in U.S. District Court here to intervene in the suit against Moses Cone Hospital and Wesley Long Hospital.

The suit is directed against the separate-but-equal provisions in the Hill-Burton Act, which has been used to distribute hundreds of millions of dollars for construction of hospitals.

The suit charged the two hospitals with discriminating against Negroes in violation of the 14th Amendment to the Constitution. It also asks that Negro doctors and dentists be allowed to practice at the hospitals.

Herbert S. Falk, attorney for Moses Cone Hospital, declined to comment on the Justice Department move. He said, "We will say what we have to say at the time of the trial."

Ballots Leave Issue Exactly Like It Started

By JOHN CHADWICK

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate voted 53-43 today against shutting off debate on the Kennedy administration's voter literacy test bill, and then rejected 64-33 a motion to table and thus kill the measure.

The two votes left the Senate back where it had been when it started the day—with the issue still before it and with Southern foes of the measure still free to carry on unlimited debate, or filibustering, against it.

The bill, under debate for two weeks, would exempt persons with a sixth-grade education from having to pass a literacy test to vote in federal elections. Backers of the bill contend such tests have been used in some Southern areas to keep Negroes from voting.

The main argument advanced against the bill is a contention that it would be an unconstitutional invasion of the right of the states to fix the qualifications for voters.

With 96 senators present and voting, 64 affirmative votes were needed to limit debate. On the 53-43 division, the backers of this were 21 votes short of the two-thirds majority needed.

Democrats split evenly on this with 30 for and 20 against. Republicans were 23 to 13 against debate limitation.

The failure to get even a simple majority for debate limitation was a heavy blow to those backing civil rights legislation.

However, it was recognized the vote did not show sentiment on the bill only, but reflected the aversion of many senators to cutting off debate.

Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield of Montana, in a maneuver aimed at obtaining a test of sentiment on the bill itself, then moved to table the measure. This was defeated 64-33.

The party division here was 38 Democrats and 26 Republicans against tabling, and 23 Democrats and 10 Republicans in favor of it. Mansfield had announced in advance he would vote against the tabling motion and would take other votes against tabling as a sign of support for the bill.

He filed a second debate-limitation petition shortly after the voting. He was joined by Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois and a bipartisan group of other senators.

Not since 1927 has the Senate voted to put its debate-limiting filibuster rule into effect. And the rule never has been successfully.

What the Common Market Means to You (I) Aftermath of War

Europe, for centuries the spawning ground of wars and national rivalries, reached the end of a bitter road in 1945.

To the struggle to rebuild was soon added a new military and political threat from the East. The issue became more than mere survival but the building of a strength that could resist Communist engulfment.

In response to the challenge, American aid through the Marshall Plan began in 1948. The 17-member Organization for European Economic Cooperation was set up to administer the program. And then in 1949, the NATO military alliance was formed.

Pepper and Taft Post Victories

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Former Sen. Claude Pepper of Florida and Robert Taft Jr., son of the late Sen. Robert A. Taft of Ohio, won decisive primary election victories Tuesday in their bids for Congress.

Two other Florida candidates, Sen. George Smathers and Rep. Dante Fascell, also won Democratic renomination. Like Pepper, who was a staunch New Deal supporter in the '30s and '40s, they had strongly endorsed President Kennedy's program and had received the President's blessing.

Results of the voting in five states included:
OHIO—Sen. Frank J. Lausche and Gov. Michael V. DiSalle won Democratic renomination. A man named Kennedy—real estate man Richard D. Kennedy—led a field of 11 Democratic candidates to see who will oppose Taft in the November race for congressman-at-large.

INDIANA—All 11 incumbent congressmen were renominated.

WEST VIRGINIA—All six incumbent congressmen were renominated.

NEW MEXICO—Two Democratic state legislators were locked in a battle for the right to oppose Republican Gov. Edwin McIninch's bid for a fifth term; two Democratic congressmen renominated.

The Florida primary drew the most interest.

Sen. Smathers had little trouble in disposing of Roger L. Davis of Fort Lauderdale and Douglas R. Voorhees of Miami in his bid for a third term.

Fascell had a hard campaign with conservative State Sen. David Eldredge but came out on top.

Rep. The Miami congressman has been Kennedy's most consistent supporter among the Florida delegation.

Pepper, whom Smathers unseated in the 1950 Democratic primary, made his comeback in the 3rd District. He campaigned hard for the President's program to finance medical care for the aged through Social Security.

The issue appeared to have drawn a mixed reaction in two other Democratic congressional primaries in Florida, a state gaining four new congressmen because of population gains.

One supporter of the Kennedy medical care program, chiropractor John A. Marcello, was defeated by Rep. D. R. Matthews, bidding for his sixth term in Congress.

Another Kennedy supporter, State Rep. L. B. Vocelle, made it into a runoff election with former State Sen. John A. Sutton in the 11th District.

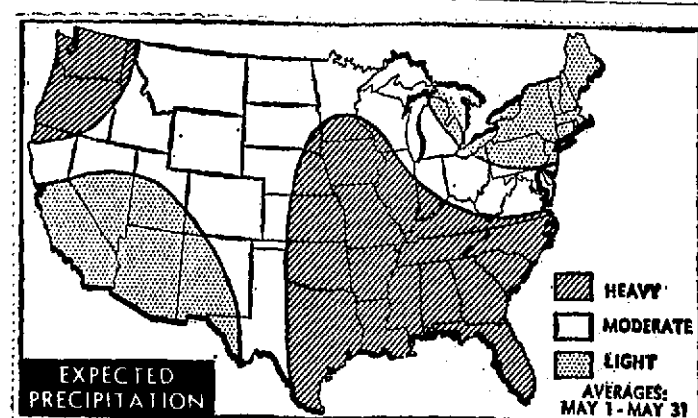

In Ohio Lausche and Taft ran away from their opponents but DiSalle had stubborn opposition from Atty. Gen. Mark McElroy before winning the Democratic gubernatorial nomination. DiSalle had said at first he wouldn't seek a second term as governor, then changed his mind.

fully employed to smash a filibuster against a civil rights bill.

By JOHN CHADWICK
WASHINGTON (AP)—After two weeks of debate the Senate reaches a key test today on legislation proposed by the Kennedy administration to prevent racial discrimination in voter literacy tests.

The vote will come on whether to invoke the Senate's antifilibuster rule and clamp a light time limit on debate.

Southern foes of the bill seemed confident that the move to put the rule into effect, requiring a two-thirds majority of senators voting, would fail.

The showdown will come automatically one hour after the start of the Senate session. A vote will be taken on a debate-limitation petition filed Monday by Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield of Montana, Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois and 29 other senators.

The literacy test bill, the chief civil rights measure urged by President Kennedy, was offered by Mansfield and Dirksen just two weeks ago today.

Southern opponents have hampered away at it as an unconstitutional attempt to deprive the states of the right to fix the qualifications of voters.

The measure provides that anyone with at least a sixth-grade education shall not be disqualified from voting in presidential and congressional elections because of failure to pass a state literacy test.

Proponents contend that in about 100 Southern counties large numbers of Negroes have been kept from registering as voters because of racial discrimination in the administration of literacy tests.

The project was watched closely by Study Mercury officials for any clue which might force a delay of the orbital space flight of astronaut Malcolm Scott Carpenter, scheduled for May 17.

The 105-foot Centaur blew apart 10,000 feet above the Atlantic Ocean 5 seconds after it was fired on its maiden flight Tuesday.

The spectacular failure dealt a severe blow to U.S. plans to develop the rocket as a booster for sending heavyweight payload into earth orbit and to the moon, Mars and Venus.

Mercury officials were concerned lest the trouble be traced to the Centaur's Atlas first stage.

Hampton on Highway Commission

By JOHN R. STARR

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Wayne Hampton, an Arkansas County rice farmer, was named to the Arkansas Highway Commission today to replace Harry W. Parkin of Little Rock.

Hampton was chosen by other commissioners after Gov. Orval E. Faubus failed to make an appointment within 30 days after Parkin's resignation March 30.

Commissioners Truman Baker of Searcy, John Crain of Wilson and Armit Taylor of Clarksville voted for Hampton, who was nominated by Taylor.

Commissioner Glen Wallace of Nashville did not vote. Wallace said in a statement to the commission that he had been urged by residents of south Arkansas to nominate someone else.

"However, I found you other three are committed to one man and it would only be embarrassing to the man I might nominate if I took any action," Wallace said.

He added that he had met Hampton Monday night and was impressed with him.

Taylor expressed admiration for Wallace's stand and said he felt appointment of Hampton improved distribution of highway commissioners around the state.

Wallace had said south Arkansas residents had felt they were being slighted because only one commissioner (Wallace) lives south of the river.

Hampton, 43, resigned from the Game and Fish Commission today to be eligible for the appointment. Parkin's unexpired term runs through Jan. 14, 1967.

Wallace is the only remaining member of the original five-man commission set up under the Mack - Blackwell Amendment in 1953. His term expires next January. Taylor, Crain and Baker all were appointed by Faubus.

Hampton said in a statement that he would support the principles of the Mack - Blackwell Amendment, which was designed to take the Highway Department out of politics.

"I am mindful of the responsibility of this job," he said. "I am aware that an outstanding job has been done by the Highway Department and I want it to continue. I am also mindful of the people's support for the Mack - Blackwell Amendment."

Hungry Reds Sent Back Into China

By FORREST EDWARDS

HONG KONG (AP)—Hong Kong police and British troops have rounded up thousands of refugees from hunger-ridden Red China in recent days and returned them to their Communist homeland.

Overcrowded Hong Kong doesn't have room for them. Other non-Communist nations won't take them.

Some had endured almost incredible hardships in their futile flight by land over rough terrain or by sea crammed below the decks of smuggler junks.

Border patrols caught many as they hid in the underbrush-covered hills on the Hong Kong side of the border.

Others were trapped aboard junks or picked up on side roads as they tried to make their way to the crowded cities of Hong Kong and Kowloon.

They were gathered at a police camp in the closed border area, fed, given some food to carry, and then returned to border crossing stations in police vans and trucks. Their fate, after their forced return to Red China, is unknown.

Government officials refuse to say how many illegal immigrants have been returned. The conservative, English-language Morning Post, quoting sources close to the police, said several thousand had been forcibly returned to China in the last week.

Since 1948, the year the Chinese Communists mounted their final drive to seize control of the mainland, more than a million refugees have crossed the China border into this tiny British colony.

Most of them—and their children born since then—are still here. No other nation has been willing to accept them in significant numbers.

Hong Kong's population—600,000 at the end of World War II—has swollen to nearly 3.5 million. The colony has an area of only 391 square miles.

Government officials say the colony no longer has the capacity to care for the natural increase of its present population—91,000 more births than deaths in 1960—and the 10,000 or more refugees who try to sneak into the colony every month.

Centaur Fails First Try, Data Sought

By HOWARD BENEDICT
CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—Radio signals and telescopic camera films were analyzed today by technicians seeking the cause of the in-flight explosion of the first Centaur high-energy space rocket.

The project was watched closely by Study Mercury officials for any clue which might force a delay of the orbital space flight of astronaut Malcolm Scott Carpenter, scheduled for May 17.

The 105-foot Centaur blew apart 10,000 feet above the Atlantic Ocean 5 seconds after it was fired on its maiden flight Tuesday.

The spectacular failure dealt a severe blow to U.S. plans to develop the rocket as a booster for sending heavyweight payload into earth orbit and to the moon, Mars and Venus.

Mercury officials were concerned lest the trouble be traced to the Centaur's Atlas first stage.

Is It Right to Demand a Reward?

By HELEN WORDEN ERSKINE

Dear Helen: Last Saturday night I lost my husband's pocket watch. Mine was in for repairs and, due to engagements where time was of the essence, I had to borrow his.

Losing is worried me as much as it did him. I ran an ad in the lost and found column of the local paper for several days. Finally, a woman phoned to know the amount of the reward offered. Her query nearly knocked me off my feet. I don't remember whether I asked, "Do you expect a reward?" or what I said. Anyway she hung up without another word.

Not that I wouldn't pay a reward if the watch were returned in good condition, but is it right to expect to be paid for being honest? I work with the public and, whenever someone drops, or leaves anything behind, I am so pleased to return it. Often, I run after a person for a half block or more to return a lost article. My old Girl Scout Motto, "Do a good deed a day," still sticks with me. Am I wrong? —A. B.

Dear A. B.: Your reasoning is logical and right. People should be honest enough to return lost articles without expecting a reward. From experience I would say the majority do. Once, when researching at the Public Library, I blithely walked off with notes and no purse. I got my purse back, contents intact. According to the information desk clerk, a man who looked like a bum handed it to her with the wish that "the lady who left this would come back."

When she asked him for his name and address, thinking that the owner should show up, might want to reward him, he vanished down the corridor.

My husband finds primitive people more honest than the civilized ones. As an example he cited a Navajo Indian who rode some 100 miles to return a box of crackers he had dropped while on a geological trip in Arizona. Yet, in their code, Navajos see no wrong in stealing from an enemy. To a certain extent, honesty is a matter of custom, religious and ethical training. But I doubt if any who sincerely live according to their code would wish to be rewarded for doing what is right.

Dear Helen: Do you think perfume making, as you recently out-

APA Invites All Candidates

FORT SMITH, Ark. (AP)—The Arkansas Press Association has invited all nine men who are running for governor to participate in a "Gubernatorial Forum" June 9 as part of the APA's mid-year convention.

The APA office said it had received acceptances from Dale Alford, Kenneth Coffelt, Sid McMath, Marvin Melton and Vernon H. Whitten, Democrats, and W. Harold Sadler, Republican.

Aides of Gov. Faubus are checking his schedule, the APA said, and Willis H. Ricketts of Fayetteville, the other Republican candidate, said he was trying to rearrange his schedule so he could attend.

The APA said it could not reach David A. Cox of Weiner. Each candidate will be allowed 10 minutes to present his views, then there will be questions from the floor.

McMath began a handshaking tour of Little Rock today, saying simply, "I'm Sid McMath. I'm running for governor."

Oldest active military group in the United States is the Rhode Island Militia. It was chartered in 1741 to beat back marauding pirates.

range his schedule so he could attend.

lined it, a likely hobby for a widower with time on his hands? Life has been very empty since my wife died. But, though a licensed pharmacist I know little about chemistry which, it seems to me, would be essential. Am I qualified?

Let me say, in passing, that you are balm to the heart. How well you understand folks. Had Elbert Hubbard lived today, he would list you among his "Famous Women."

Dear W. B.: Anything you like to do you can do. But to excel naturally takes practice and study. And that goes for perfume making as well. However, if given a formula (you will find a couple in my leaflet) you may indeed master that in one lesson. Adventure a little the second time and so on, until eventually, if you have a normal sense of smell, you will create a new and alluring scent. Perfume making as a hobby is diverting, interesting and can even be lucrative. Also, it opens the way to new and fascinating friendships.

MEMO to Wil's End: You know, as well as I, what the consequences will be if you continue to go dancing with that married man. People who play with fire usually get burned. Send a stamped, self-addressed envelope for my leaflet on "Marital Harmony."

Send your problem to Helen Worden Erskine care of this newspaper. Be sure to enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope. Helpful leaflets available. Write for "How Honest Are You?"

Yankee Helps Out Jeff Davis Fund

MEMPHIS (AP) - A Yankee whose grandfather would "turn over in his grave if he knew what I was doing" will donate money today to help build a statue of Jefferson Davis.

Charles D. McCadden, a Washington, D.C., lawyer, will present a $50 check to Mayor Henry Loeb. Loeb in turn will pass it on to the United Daughters of the Confederacy.

McCadden, in Memphis for the Cotton Carnival, read about the UDC drive to raise funds for the statue and decided he'd help out. He said his grandfather fought with the Union's 15th Volunteer Cavalry in Tennessee.

Doesn't Like Being a Utility Man

By LOU PRATO PITTSBURGH (AP)—After ten years as a regular in the National League, Johnny Logan doesn't exactly relish the idea of being a utility man.

But if that's the job his Pittsburgh Pirates bosses want him to fill, he is determined to play the best second-fiddle this side of the New York Philharmonic.

"I realize what being a utility man means," the one-time Milwaukee Braves' shortstop said. "But when I get a break to play—like now with Don Hoak injured—I'm going to show them that I'm the best man they can find and that I can get things done."

Logan certainly has been proving his point while subbing for Hoak in the last week. He blasted seven hits in nine times at bat and fielded like an all-star.

In 45 games last year with the Braves and Pirates, Logan had only 14 hits in 71 times at bat.

"I'm a streak hitter," Logan said. "This is how I hit in Milwaukee. I've done nothing different this year except maybe worked a little harder. My legs are stronger than they've been in a long time. The exercises prescribed by trainer Danny Whelan have helped me considerably."

Pittsburgh Manager Danny Murtha says Logan has been doing a good job.

Logan played with the Braves from 1951 until June of last season—almost all of the time as their regular shortstop. He never hit .300 but always was a dependable man both at bat and in the field.

N. J. Doctors Accused of Blackmail

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of Welfare Abraham Ribicoff said today New Jersey doctors who say they wouldn't treat patients under Social Security health insurance are "trying to blackmail the Congress and the American people."

Ribicoff also said in a statement that the New Jersey doctors "apparently don't mind the thought of federal funds when the doctors themselves are the beneficiaries."

"These doctors apparently believe it is all right," he said, "for the federal government to help build the hospitals in which they practice, but that an insurance plan that would help their patients pay their hospital bills would not be good."

A number of doctors at the Point Pleasant Hospital, Point Pleasant, N.J., and the Pitkin Memorial Hospital, Neptune, N.J., signed a resolution last week saying they would not treat patients under President Kennedy's proposed program of health insurance for the aged through Social Security.

Ribicoff said the two hospitals have received grants totaling $572,246 under the federal program to aid construction and equipment of hospitals and other health facilities.

"The attitude of these doctors in opposition to a basic national need is shocking," he said.

"In trying to blackmail the Congress and the American people by refusing to treat older people, they are violating the Hippocratic oath which they took before they began the practice of medicine."

"It should be absolutely no concern to a physician where a patient gets the money with which to pay his hospital costs—whether from his private funds, from private insurance, or from the Social Security trust fund as provided by the King-Anderson Bill."

This bill embraces President Kennedy's proposal for medical care for the aged under Social Security.

He clapped his hat on his head and walked over to stare down at me. "One thing's important. It can save you a lot of trouble and it could save your life. . . . If Carla DiMucci left anything in your care you'd better tell me now. You better get rid of any pledge, any vow, any of the Cinderella bit you mentioned, and turn whatever it is over to me."

"There's nothing."

"Apparently this wouldn't make a great deal of difference to you, but have you realized that it might save her life, too?"

"There's nothing."

"Have you looked?"

"In the bathroom. It was the only place she was alone."

"Are you sure?"

"No," I said. I laid down the book I was holding. It showed how much my hands were shaking. My head was going again, and it was going badly with the throb and the ache and light, hard, jumping pains behind my ear. "Please," I said.

"What do you mean, no?"

Paris Voters to Decide on Bonds

PARIS, Ark. (AP)—Voters here decide today whether to issue up to $265,000 in bonds to build plant facilities for an automotive parts firm.

If approved, the bonds would finance construction of a building on an eight-acre site within the city limits. The building would have 25,000 square feet of floor space, and would be leased to the firm. The proposed bond issue is being made under a provision of Act 9 of the 1960 legislature.

He Was Placed on the Payroll

DECATUR, Ill. (AP)—Finance Director Jack W. Loftus appeared before City Council Monday night to register a complaint about the payroll approved for the 1962-63 fiscal year.

The council last week approved salaries for 300 city workers and authorized Loftus to write out the weekly checks.

Loftus was back because the council missed one item—his salary. The council voted unanimously to put Loftus on the payroll.

"You're absolutely certain?"

"Why didn't you call me?" His tone sharpened.

"I did. You couldn't be reached."

Indians Use Trade to Pull Within a Game

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

Cleveland General Manager Gabe Paul, a wheeler and deal maker in the Frank Lane manner but a little slower and more before he pulls the strings, came up with a pair of lowball offers to the Indians in pitcher Dick Donovan and outfielder Willie Tasby.

The often peddled players, both acquired from Washington, carried the Indians to a 6-3 triumph over Minnesota Tuesday night that pulled second place Cleveland to within one game of the American League leading New York Yankees.

Paul, who previously pulled the strings in Cincinnati, got Donovan in the trade that sent Jim Pierce to Washington and raised a howl from Cleveland fans. He picked up Tasby for two lesser lights in a deal that raised not an eyebrow.

But Tasby raised a couple against the Twins. The 29-year-old righty swinger who hit .251 last season, made his first start for the Indians and responded with a 2-for-5 performance, knocking in three runs, including what proved to be the clincher in a two-run seventh inning.

Donovan aided his own cause with a bases-loaded single that accounted for one run before Tasby stroked his hit for the decisive run.

Tasby's clincher provided Donovan with his fifth victory without a loss. The 34-year-old right-hander, who led the AL with a 2.40 earned run average while posting a 10-10 record last season, is the first hurler in the league to win five.

Al Kaline drove in four runs with his eighth homer, a triple and a single, leading Detroit to a 10-1 triumph over the Los Angeles Angels in the only other game played. Boston-New York, Kansas City-Baltimore, Chicago-Washington were postponed due to rain.

In the National League, first-place San Francisco edged second place St. Louis 4-3, the Los Angeles Dodgers needed 10 innings, to whip Houston 9-6, Philadelphia defeated Cincinnati 6-4 and the New York Mets took the Chicago Cubs 3-1. The Pittsburgh-Milwaukee game was rained out.

Donovan had a 6-1 lead going into the ninth when the Twins, with a four-game win streak on the line, began to make menacing gestures. Lennie Green's homer after Bernie Allen single chased Donovan. Reliever Barry Latman gave up singles to Rich Rollins and Harmon Killebrew before ending it by striking out pinch hitter George Banks, Jim Kaal (1-4) was the loser.

While Kaline was providing the hitting, Phil Regan provided solid pitching for the Tigers to snap a five-game losing skid. Regan (2-2) limited the Angels, winners of four in a row, to six hits—one a homer by Steve Biko. Eli Garcia (1-1) took the loss.

Chandler Visits Chaffee Again

PORT CHAFFEE, Ark. (AP)—Former Gov. A. B. Chandler of Kentucky visited the 100th Division (training) here today.

Chandler, who is seeking his third term as governor, was accompanied by Fred Morgan, state representative from Paducah, who is campaigning for lieutenant governor, and a party of eight others.

The former governor walked through mess halls and barracks, shaking hands with Kentuckians. To one group of soldiers, he said, "I came to pay my respects to you, and to tell you how glad the home folks are that you're serving our country here at such a crucial time. God love you."

Chandler and his party will leave Port Chaffee today and drive to Fort Stewart, Ga., to visit other Kentuckians who were called to active duty with the army last year.

Gold was first discovered near Johannesburg, South Africa, in 1886. A year later, 3,000 prospectors had moved to the area.

A&M Defeats Southern State

MONTICELLO, Ark. (AP)—Arkansas A&M garnered 13 first places here Tuesday to defeat Southern State College of Magnolia 95-31.

The Aggies also picked up 10 second places, bettered two school records and tied another.

Glenn Wilson finished the 220-yard low hurdles in 24.9 to better one mark and ran the 120-yard high hurdles in 15.8 to tie another. Richard Sanders topped the school's broad jump record with a 22 foot 6 1/2 inch effort.

Two Added to Game Saturday

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP)—University of Arkansas coaches, beaming over films of Saturday's Red-White game but bemoaning the loss of nine men with injuries, sent the Razorbacks back to work Tuesday.

The Hogs will work out today and Thursday, then rest a day before traveling to Little Rock for another Red-White scrap that will close out spring practice.

Coach Frank Broyles said the injury situation put him almost back where he was before the Easter holidays.

Sidelined on the "grey team" Tuesday were fullbacks Kenny Dean of Gillet and Charles Daniel of Little Rock, wingbacks Stan Sparks of Amarillo, Tex., and Jack London of Tulsa, Okla., quarterback Billy Grey of Helena and Freddy Marshall of Memphis; tailback Ronnie Carter of Fordyce, center Dick Hatfield of Helena and guard Tommy Brasher of El Dorado.

Broyles said because of the number of injuries Jesse Branch would play in the Saturday game at Little Rock. Branch, a letterman fullback, has been excused from most spring practice drills.

Casey Puts New Hurlers Right to Work

By CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN
Associated Press Sports Writer

CHICAGO (AP)—Casey Stengel peered out of the dugout at Wrigley Field—the first time he had been there since leading his old Boston Braves against the Chicago Cubs in 1943.

"Must be a dozen fans up in the stands," said the New York Mets skipper. "Must be the cold weather. It couldn't be because the Cubs are playing us."

The opening of the three-game series—the battle of the National League cellar—actually drew 1,396 customers Tuesday. It was the smallest Wrigley Field gathering of the season.

The Cubs disappointed them by losing 3-1 as Jay Hook stifled them on four hits in his second route-going job.

Before the game, Stengel spelled-bound a large delegation of newsmen, who filled the visiting dugout as if it were World Series time.

"I just met my two new pitchers (Vinegar Bend Mizell and Bob G. Miller) and this is what I said to them: 'Miller, how many innings you pitched?' He looked at me and said: 'Three or four.' I said: 'I guess you are ready for us anyway, so now you can consider yourself one of my early starters.'"

"I said to Mizell: 'Can you pitch?' He said: 'Yes.' I said: 'OK, you pitch for us here in the last game of the series.'"

"So, you see, we all got acquainted real quick."

"Our pitching staff is really shattered and I always have a lot of re-arranging to do. Some people think I have 10 starters, but actually there are only three—Hook, Craig (Roger) and Jackson (Al)."

"And that brings me to training. We spent a lot of money getting players, and if they don't pan out after 30 or 35 days we'll get rid of some of them and may get a new batch. Any player who doesn't want to train or play for me can go to Weiss (George Weiss, general manager) or me and ask to be traded. They might go, or they might find themselves in the minors for more conditioning."

Surging Giants March on, Rest Lose Ground

By JIM HACKLEMAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

San Francisco's surging Giants march on while other National League contenders stand still—or worse. Whatever became of that multiple-team, wire-to-wire pennant race?

Taking on their closest pursuer and an old pitching nemesis Tuesday night the Giants carried away a 4-3 victory over the St. Louis Cardinals, boosting their lead to four games.

To gain the narrow win, the Giants had to beat Larry Jackson, who had whipped them eight straight times over a two-season span, and withstand some late Cardinal trouble. They did both on the tough pitching of Juan Marichal (5-2) and the star hitting of Orlando Cepeda, winning for the 12th time in their last 13 games.

Los Angeles counter-rallied against Houston for a 9-6 decision in 10 innings, Philadelphia beat Cincinnati 6-4 and New York's Mets got out of last place for the first time in their young history and shoved Chicago into the cellar, downing the Cubs 3-1. The Milwaukee Braves and the Pirates were rained out at Milwaukee.

The American League managed to get in only two games, Cleveland beating Minnesota 6-3 and Detroit bombing Los Angeles 10-1. Boston at New York, Chicago at Washington and Kansas City at Baltimore all were rained out.

The Marichal-Cepeda combination paced the Giants, with Felipe Alou and Ed Bailey chipping in with vital hits. Cepeda slugged a two-run double against Jackson (3-3) in the first inning, then he and Alou connected for successive doubles in the eighth, breaking a 2-2 tie. Bailey came through with a single, delivering what proved to be the winning run.

The Cards played long ball against Marichal, counting a homer and double by Stan Musial, a homer by Carl Sawatski and Ken Boyer's double among the five hits off the youthful right-hander. Sawatski's homer and Boyer's double came in the bottom of the ninth. Marichal weathered the uprising for his fifth complete game and the ninth in the last 11 games for Giant pitchers.

The amazing Musial, 41, with a host of records to his credit, climbed into the league batting lead with a .388 average. San Francisco's Harvey Kuen, with 1-for-3, dropped to second at .381.
